FR	SO	JR	SR	CHECKLIST ITEM ACTIVITY	DATE COMPLETED
●	●	●	●	Identify core courses and curriculum requirements - Be aware that grades matter beginning your freshman year.
●	●	●	●	Attend camps and exposure events - College coaches will want to see your progress and improvements.
●	●	●	●	Discuss playing collegiately with HS/Club coaches and identify areas of improvement. Constantly work on improving your weaknesses.
●	●	●	●	Create a profile complete with personal and athletic information as well as a skills video. College coaches need a way to evaluate you.
●	●	●	●	Research and list your top college and university choices. Compare and contrast the best fit schools for you.
●	●	●	●	Discuss your talent level and projected level of play with your HS/Club coach to determine what collegiat level of play you are best suited for.
●	●	●	●	Ask HS/Club coaces to complete a yearly assessment of your skill level and improvements.
●	●	●	●	Personally contact recruiting coordinators and coaches at schools of interest and begin a follow-up program.
●	●	●	●	Yearly update your video and personal profile.
	●	●	●	Review core eligibility requirements for colleges of interest (ie. Core courses, GPA, etc.).
		●	●	Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center if you plan on playing for an NCAA college or university.
		●	●	Have HS counselor send transcripts to NCAA Eligibility Center.
		●	●	Take PSAT in the Fall.
		●	●	Take ACT/SAT test and send scores to the NCAA Eligibility Center (code "9999"). Take your first ACT/SAT test, you can always retest to improve scores.
		●	●	Review ACT/SAT scores and core course GPA to determing if your test scores and grades are good enough for admittance to college/university.
			●	Complete college application and financial aid forms.
			●	Check acceptance status at college/university admissions office.
			●	Take/re-take ACT/SAT test as needed to improve your scores.
			●	Review Amateurism Certification - Review NCAA amateurism responses and request final amateurism certification on or after April 1st for fall enrollees.
			●	Have HS counselor send final transcripts to NCAA Eligibility Center.	